RANDOLPH AIR FORCE BASE TX 78150-6001

OFFICE OF THE COMMANDER

6 JUL 1988

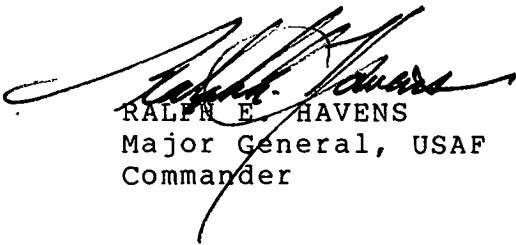

SUBJECT: Defense Language Institute's Washington Office, Request for Additional Personnel (Your Memo, 11 May 88)

TO:

Chairman, Foreign Language Committee
National Security Agency
Room 9A 154
Ft Meade, Maryland 20755-6000

1. Thank you for your recent letter regarding an additional staff member for the Defense Language Institute's Foreign Language Center in Washington DC. We are sensitive to the personnel needs of the Language Center in Washington DC. As a result of recent manpower cuts, the Assistant Commandant of the Defense Language Institute (DLI) has determined that no additional Air Force officer billet will be transferred to the Washington office in 1988.

2. Should DLI establish a requirement for an Air Force officer in the Washington office, we will work closely with them to select a highly qualified officer to meet their mission requirements. Again, thank you for your expression of concern on behalf of the Foreign Language Committee.

RALPH E. HAVENS
Major General, USAF
